“What do you call a group with different backgrounds and gifts who come together to serve? You call them the church.”

– Dr. Sandy C. Gregory, NCBAM director

NCBAM's Care Team Training workshops include:

Christ-Centered Care

The need for and benefits of Care Team ministry;
the biblical basis for caring for the frail aging

Anatomy of a Care Team

The structure, operation, and services of a sustainable and powerful Care Team ministry

Resources from NCBAM

Programs and services available from NCBAM to enhance your Care Team ministry

Equipped to Serve

Best policies and practices for ministering to the whole person—spirit, soul, and body

NCBAM staff is available to conduct Care Team Training workshops to assist your church in developing or enhancing its model of ministry. Workshops include organizing Care Teams, establishing and maintaining boundaries, handling emergencies, and much more!

Churches receive a leadership manual including reproducible assessments, waivers, care plan forms, and evidence-based safety information to share with care recipients. Each Care Team member receives a guidebook to encourage and inform them as they serve.
