

Prayer changes things.

So can you.

A young woman with a bright smile is holding the hand of an elderly woman. The young woman's hand is resting on top of the elderly woman's hand, which is holding a wooden cane. The background is a soft-focus outdoor setting with yellow and blue colors.

Volunteer to make a difference in the life of an aging adult!

"For we are laborers together with God."

1 Corinthians 3:9

Why volunteer?

"I get chills thinking how I've been blessed by Mamie and her spirit. She is a godsend to me."

– Jennifer Cross, transportation assistance, Thomasville

"Building ramps with the brotherhood brings us closer together."

– Jock Smith, ramp builder, Durham

"It's not about delivering the food. I like being a buddy for people in the middle of their day."

– Larry Brush, meal delivery, Fayetteville

"I have learned a lot from Jeri as she shares her life stories with me."

– Brenda Emmons, friendly visits, Thomasville

Whether you're good with a drill, at checkers, or just shooting the breeze, NCBAM can connect you with ministry opportunities in your community.

Call 877.506.2226 to change things in the life of an aging adult!

North Carolina Baptist Aging Ministry
877.506.2226 www.ncbam.org
A ministry of Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina