

Servant Volunteers in ACTION

Equipped to serve with skill, creativity, and joy!

“There is an eldercare crisis in America and the church is the answer. We got this.”

– Dr. Sandy C. Gregory, NCBAM director

NCBAM's Servant Volunteers in Action workshop equips attendees to:

- Understand the needs of the frail aging and their caregivers, and the rewards of serving.
- Provide holistic care to the frail aging that addresses spiritual, emotional and physical needs.
- Be active and empathetic listeners, establish boundaries, handle emergencies, recognize elder abuse, and much more!

This training will help all ages and groups better understand the spiritual, emotional and physical needs of the frail aging. The information will benefit Care Team members, youth groups assisting with mission projects, volunteers providing respite to full-time caregivers, or anyone who desires to help the frail aging maximize their independence and dignity.

Attendees will be equipped to minister to the needs of the whole person—with skill, creativity, and joy!
